CCRcorp Announces New Virtual Experience for 2020 Conferences

2020 Proxy Disclosure and 17th Annual Executive Compensation Conferences to be Held on September 21-23, Presented by CCRcorp's TheCorporateCounsel.net & CompensationStandards.com

CCRcorp is proud to announce that the 2020 Proxy Disclosure and 17th Annual Executive Compensation Conferences will be held virtually September 21-23. The Conferences are presented by CCRcorp's TheCorporateCounsel.net and CompensationStandards.com. CCRcorp came to this decision in an effort to ensure the health and safety of its customers and partners.

Executive pay and all related disclosures continue to draw intense scrutiny. Therefore, it is vital to have the best possible guidance. This pair of conferences will give attendees the latest essential—and practical— guidance they need for upcoming challenges.

The conferences will feature panels of veteran practitioners, including featured Speakers Bill Hinman of Division of Corporation Finance and Ning Chiu of Davis Polk & Wardwell. Panels will also feature CCRcorp Editors Alan Dye, Dave Lynn, Mike Melbinger and Mark Borges, as well as several other experts across the industry. The two conferences are essential for all professionals responsible for preparing and reviewing compensation disclosures, those accountable for implementing executive and equity compensation plans, as well as those who counsel or advise boards. This can include but is not limited to accountants, CEOs, CFOs, consultants, corporate secretaries, directors, HR staff and lawyers.

Where to Attend

Registrants can attend the 2020 conferences virtually via nationwide live video webcast. This is available through the platform MVP compatible with desktops, mobile devices, and conference room setups. Attendance also guarantees access to the video archive of the conference once it is published.
