[AUSTIN, TX, Sept. 15, 2020] -- CCRcorp is proud to announce that the 2020 Proxy Disclosure and 17th Annual Executive Compensation Conferences' virtual platform is now live. This engaging, interactive and safe platform offers conference attendees and sponsors several exciting ways to continue to connect with colleagues, advisors and potential clients.

The conferences are hosted on a web-based platform, so all elements can be accessed without downloading applications or external links. The platform is user-friendly and intuitive, but also has specialists standing by for any technical questions or issues.

Conference Overview

Executive pay and all related disclosures continue to draw intense scrutiny. Therefore, it is vital to have the best possible guidance. This pair of conferences will give attendees the latest essential and practical guidance they need for upcoming challenges.

The conferences will feature panels of veteran practitioners, including featured speaker Bill Hinman, the Director of the SEC's Division of Corporation Finance, as well as former Corp Fin Directors Meredith Cross and Keith Higgins. Panels will also feature CCRcorp Editors Alan Dye, Dave Lynn, Mike Melbinger and Mark Borges, as well as several other prominent experts. The two conferences are essential for all professionals who are responsible for guiding boards and compensation committees on executive compensation decisions and anyone who is involved with preparing and reviewing compensation disclosures – including executive pay and benefits managers, other HR team members, corporate secretaries, outside counsel and consultants.

Roundtables

On Monday, September 21st, CCRcorp is offering interactive breakout Roundtables, hosted by industry experts. These sessions provide an opportunity to meet and discuss “hot topics” with colleagues across the nation. Roundtable topics include “COVID-19 Disclosures” hosted by Bryan Brown from Jones Day, “Director Compensation” hosted by Ellen Sueda from Ropes & Gray, “Working with Proxy Advisors” hosted by Laura Wanlass of Aon and more!

Roundtable seats are limited and conference attendees are encouraged to save their seat now!
